

What Do I Send My Child To Camp With?

Listed below are clothing and items your child will need while at camp. Please use discretion when selecting the clothing that you send your child to camp with. Swim wear and other attire should be appropriate and modest (i.e. swim trunks for boys, one piece swimsuits for girls). While packing, remember that your child will be involved in an active and rustic environment. Camp attire should be comfortable, casual and durable. Please do not send your child to camp with any clothing that you would mind getting dirty.
